FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

To—All Treasury Officers, Circular No. 1706, dated 18th April 1888.

In accordance with arrangements entered into with the Madras Bank, the Treasury Officer, Mysore District, has been authorized to issue supply bills on all the District and Taluk Treasuries in this Province at the instance of the Agent, Madras Bank, Mysore. The form of the supply bill will be the same as that of the bills now issued from the Huzur Treasury with the numbers however distinguished by the alphabet A in order that they may not be confounded with those of the Huzur Treasury. They will purport to issue from the Huzur Treasury, but will be signed by the Treasury Officer, Mysore District, for the Comptroller in charge Huzur Treasury. On payment, these bills should be charged to the Huzur Treasury but separately from those issued direct from the Huzur Treasury. In order that the Treasury Officer, Mysore, may not issue such bills when the cash balance in the Treasuries is low, it is requested that duplicates of the weekly cash balance statements will be punctually sent to him by the District Treasury Officers for his information.

A. RANGASWAMIENGAR,
Comptroller.
